

CARLETON COLLEGE
7 May 1976

26 February 1976

MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence

SUBJECT : Request for Approval to Address Students of Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota

1. I request approval to appear before a group of students and meet with individual students of Carleton College to discuss skills required for non-academic employment at the BA level.

2. The seminar will take place on Friday, 7 May 1976.

3. I was selected to appear as an alumnus employed in a non-academic professional pursuit. The college will pay for travel to and from the campus and for food and lodging while on campus.

4. I will be identified as an Agency geographer, as I have frequently been identified in professional activities, but I will not represent the Agency. No classified information will be discussed.

5. I will take annual leave to engage in this activity.

6. The Office of the General Counsel has ruled that no violation of conflict of interest provisions will occur if I am reimbursed by the College for my transportation and lodging provided that the trip is taken while I am on annual leave and receive no compensation from the Government.
